

Assistant Professor of Elementary Education
Lander University

Lander University's College of Education invites applications for an Assistant Professor with expertise in Elementary Education. This teaching-focused, tenure track position emphasizes high quality teacher preparation, scholarly productivity, and service to the university and profession. We seek an energetic, collaborative educator committed to preparing effective teachers for the diverse learners of grades 2–6.

Primary Responsibilities: Teach undergraduate courses in Elementary Education, potentially including: Mathematics methods, Science and social studies methods, Assessment and instructional planning, Classroom management and differentiated instruction, Supervise and mentor teacher candidates in school-based field experiences. Support program assessment, accreditation, and continuous improvement efforts. Serve as an academic advisor for Elementary Education majors. Participate in department, college, and university committees and initiatives. Collaborate with area schools, mentor teachers, and district partners.

Required Qualifications: Doctorate (Ph.D. or Ed.D.) in Curriculum and Instruction, Elementary Education, or related discipline. Minimum three years of successful teaching experience in grades 2–6 (or relevant elementary settings). Demonstrated commitment to effective, student-centered instruction. Strong communication, collaboration, and organizational skills.

Preferred Qualifications: Experience supervising teacher candidates in clinical or student-teaching settings. Expertise in one or more of the following areas: Mathematics education, Science Education, Social Studies Education, Instructional Technology, Innovative teaching practices, Curriculum development. Experience with CAEP accreditation processes or P–12 school partnerships. Experience teaching at the university level.

Application: Interested candidates should send a CV/resume; statement of teaching philosophy and experience; evidence of teaching effectiveness; unofficial transcripts; and the names and contact information of three references to:

Stephen Bismarck, Dean
Lander University
320 Stanley Ave.
Greenwood, SC 29649

Electronic submission of materials is required.

Screening of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled.

Lander is a public comprehensive university committed to teaching in a liberal arts environment. In the past 10 years, Lander has increased its enrollment and added more graduate programs. More than 69,000 persons live in Greenwood County, and the community has excellent healthcare facilities, a low cost of living, and a revitalized Uptown. Learn more at www.lander.edu

Lander University values diversity in its community, and strongly encourages applications from members of underrepresented populations. Lander is a tobacco-free institution. All final candidates are subject to successfully completing background requirements. Note: The University generally does not sponsor an H-1B visa. An affirmative action/ equal opportunity employer/ Title IX.