

Instructor of Education
Lander University

Lander University's College of Education invites applications for an Instructor of Education. We seek a collaborative, student centered educator committed to high quality teacher preparation and service to the university and profession.

The successful candidate will contribute to our growing CAEP-accredited educator preparation programs and help prepare future teachers to meet the needs of diverse learners.

Primary Responsibilities Teach undergraduate and/or graduate courses in Education, such as: Child Development, Global Issues in Education, Adolescent Development, and General Pedagogy. Supervise teacher candidates in field experiences. Provide academic advising to undergraduate and/or graduate students. Participate in program development, assessment, and continuous improvement activities. Contribute to departmental, college, and university committees and initiatives. Collaborate with area schools, community partners, and professional organizations.

Required Qualifications Masters degree in Education, Curriculum and Instruction, Teaching and Learning or other education related fields. Minimum of three years of successful teaching experience in a P-12 classroom. Commitment to teaching excellence and working with diverse student populations.

Preferred Qualifications Doctorate (Ph.D., Ed.D.) in Education, Curriculum and Instruction, or other education related field. Experience teaching at the university level. Experience with supervision of teacher candidates. Experience teaching in the middle/high school environment. Familiarity with CAEP standards and accreditation.

Application: Interested candidates should send a CV/resume; statement of teaching philosophy and experience; evidence of teaching effectiveness; unofficial transcripts; and the names and contact information of three references to:

Stephen Bismarck, Dean
Lander University
320 Stanley Ave.
Greenwood, SC 29649

Electronic submission of materials to sbismarck@lander.edu is required.

Screening of applications will begin immediately and will continue until the position is filled.

Lander is a public comprehensive university committed to teaching in a liberal arts environment. In the past 10 years, Lander has increased its enrollment and added more graduate programs. More than 69,000 persons live in Greenwood County, and the community has excellent healthcare facilities, a low cost of living, and a revitalized Uptown. Learn more at www.lander.edu

Lander University values diversity in its community, and strongly encourages applications from members of underrepresented populations. Lander is a tobacco-free institution. All final candidates are subject to successfully completing background requirements. Note: The University generally does not sponsor an H-1B visa. An affirmative action/ equal opportunity employer/ Title IX.